By Mary Erdman Can't wait to make a few of the lovely little things that I actually like! I wish there was a way to figure out just how many of what type of projects you would even like. This was cute for the two things I actually would make. I'm not sure why I bought this other than what was on the cover! Sorry, I'm a little crabby at the moment and don't need any other do-dahs in my life other than to give away as embellishments! It's Christmas and I'm tired and crabby! Ho ho ho! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not for beginners By M. Allen Seems cute, right? Not for beginners. Even the smallest gift was too complicated to follow! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not worth the price. By KTZ Not many suggestions you can't find online for free. Too many things call for felting. Not as I expected, based on description. I recommend potential buyers actually inspect a copy before ordering online.

There's nothing quite like receiving a handmade gift, and your family and friends will love being on the receiving end of these handmade designs. Designer Mags Kandis inspires with this delightful collection of beautiful and colorful little projects for you to knit, crochet, and felt. From wearable accessories such as hats, mittens, scarves, socks, and wraps to home decor including a tea cozy, pin cushion, needle case, and laptop cover, these 30+ pieces are sweet, lively and add a little joy to every household. Each project features creative embellishments and personal touches, including beading, buttons, needlefelting, applique, and embroidery. Mags also shares her recipes for easy food gifts and simple sewing projects such as sewn fabric gift bags and sachets to pair with fiber gifts. Directions for making these little add-ons that make a gift personal and extra-special are scattered throughout the book. Gifted will inspire you to grab another ball of yarn and invest a little time and love to create something special for someone special.
