Studer IIII recommend this book to those just starting in model railroading as well as those that have been modeling for several years. Rick Selby takes you through 8 steps as you build a complete 4x8 foot layout. The steps include selecting a starter set, building benchwork, laying and ballasting track, basic scenery, modeling mountains, hills and water and building structures. He also explains how to expand your layout as well.0 of 0 people found the following
